

Evidence: On February 6, 2007, Mr. Byrd advised his probation officer that he secured a job with Opinion Access Corporation, in Queens, New York. On April 19, 2007, the probation officer learned that the defendant was not an employee of this company. On April 30, 2007, Mr. Byrd admitted that he lied about working for Opinion Access Company.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER that the conditions of supervised release modified, to include the following: For a period of 60 days, the defendant shall remain in his home of record. The defendant is only authorized to leave for employment or other necessary activities with the approval, in advance, of the Probation Department. The home confinement period shall commence on a date approved by the Probation Department. While serving the period of home confinement, the defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring bracelet or similar tracking device and follow all requirements and procedures established for Home Confinement by the Probation Department. In addition, the defendant shall pay the costs of home confinement, including the price of electronic monitoring equipment, to the degree he is reasonably able.

ORDER OF COURT

Considered and ordered this 22 day of July, 2007.

Chief U.S. District Judge

Under the penalty of perjury I declare the foregoing is true and correct:

Place Wilmington, Delaware

Date June 28, 2007